

Harrison School for the Arts, a performing arts high school in Lakeland, Florida, is looking for a full-time assistant principal. The assistant principal works directly with the principal to manage the daily operations of the school, including (but not limited to) evaluation of instructional personnel, student discipline, school safety, coordination of student testing, and supervision of after-school and evening events. Interested applicants should complete the online application process at www.polkschools.net and send a letter of inquiry and a resume to Kevin LeVine at kevin.levine@polk-fl.net. To be eligible for the position, applicants outside of Polk County must have a Master's of Educational Leadership and have participated in some type of educational administrative training program through their current district or state.